Mukta Arts Ltd AGM Presentation

Year in Review

Year in Review

- The company showed some areas of improvement across all its businesses in the past 12 months
- Revenues up as well as footfalls for Mukta A2 Cinemas as compared to the previous year
- Mukta A2 Cinemas has seen a strong uptick in business in summer 2023
- Mukta Arts standalone saw a 25% profit on revenues after taxes for the year
- Mukta Arts launched its TV Series ‘Janaki’ on DD to excellent feedback
- WWI saw increased student intake, hitting pre-pandemic numbers
- WWI land case continuing but a resolution seems much closer

Mukta A2 Cinemas

- Mukta A2 Cinemas saw its footfalls increase from 1.7 million to over 4 million in the past 12 months
- Revenues also up in India and Bahrain, growing over 200% from the previous year
- The company opened a location in Chittorgarh, Rajasthan and exited loss-making properties
- Since July 2023, the performance of theatres has been record-breaking with the company twice breaking all time records in collections and F&B
- Pipeline for the coming year looks strong with engaging content
- Ad revenues have also gradually returned to near normal levels
- Mukta A2 has signed an MoU to create a chain of theatres in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on a management basis

Way Ahead

- Mukta A2 Cinemas will continue to ride the positive wave of box office performance and strengthen its offering across properties
- Saudi deal should bring additional value to the bottom line without investment
- New cinema openings are planned
- ‘Janaki’ Production will continue until Feb 2024 which should strengthen the company’s profitability significantly
- Film Production will resume in 2024 with a Studio partner for the three films in development to ensure risk is adequately mitigated
- WWI will continue to focus on emerging media and immersive technology to build toward new course offerings
- WWI land case resolution, if it happens this financial year, could lead to significant upside for the company and shareholders

Thank You
